Feel
CONFIDENT

"For everyone at PWDA, I want to thank you for my beautiful smile. Growing up in North Carolina, we only visited the dentist when it was absolutely necessary. I remember one of my first dental visits when I was a child… The doctor told me that if I didn't keep still that he would drill a hole in my jaw –I was terrified! I ran out before he could even finish the procedure so, needless to say my fear of the dentist is pretty extreme - until I met Dr. Samaha - and the PWDA family, of course. Since I stepped foot in Dr. Samaha's office for my consultation I felt completely at ease--knowing that I'm in good hands with her.

The atmosphere of Port Warwick Dental Arts is so soothing. I never expected for my transformation to be so quick and seamless –or to even develop a personal relationship with my dentist. I feel like I'm visiting friends when I come to PWDA instead of dreading my appointment with the dentist–which was the usual for me. I have been called 'gap teeth' for so long and I've been ashamed and embarrassed by my smile for so long. I met Dr. Samaha and in just a few weeks, I was able to smile with confidence – for the first time in my entire life, all thanks to Dr. Samaha! I not only want to thank you for my new smile but I want to also thank you for being so patient with me through this nerve-wracking time in my life. This was a big step for me and you helped put me at peace and made this transformation easier than I ever thought it would be. Thank you for being excited by my joy and making me feel like a beautiful woman again. God had truly blessed you with a gift and I pray his blessings upon you and your team for all that you do.

Thank you Dr. Samaha – you have truly changed my life!"
